

Sermon Notes

Now Jabez was more honorable than his brothers, and his mother called his name Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him in pain." And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, "Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!" So God granted him what he requested.

The Jabez Prayer Sermon Series

Tucked away in the Old Testament is a brief prayer that contains four petitions: "Oh, that you would bless me indeed!", "Oh, that you would enlarge my territory!", "Oh, that your hand would be with me!", and "Keep me from evil." It was originally prayed by a man named Jabez. Scripture tells us little about him, except that he was an honorable man, and "God granted him what he requested." (1 Chronicles 4:9-10) So Jabez is remembered, not because of what he did, but because of what he prayed.

In this sermon series, we will explore each of The Jabez Prayer's petitions and discover how they may hold the key to an extraordinary life filled with God's abundant blessings.
