

Sermon Notes

On the day of Pentecost all the believers were meeting together in one place. Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them. And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages, as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability.
(Acts 2:1-4 NLT)

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”
(Acts 1:8 NLT)

The Holy Spirit gives us the power to...

- 1) _____ our feelings

- 2) _____ the message of Jesus

- 3) _____ the whole world for Christ

Dear God, I know I have sinned, and I ask for your forgiveness. I believe your Son Jesus died for my sins and rose from the dead. I trust and follow Christ as my Lord and Savior. Fill me with Your Holy Spirit and guide my life. This I pray in Jesus' name, Amen.

Sermon Series

Pentecost was a Jewish harvest festival, but for Christians it commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit on Jesus' followers fifty days after His Resurrection. For the first Christians, Pentecost was more than a one-time occasion, it became a way of life. In June, we are exploring how we too can be Spirit-filled by "Living in Pentecost" through this four-part sermon series.
