

How has God been active in your life?

Story-telling as Witnessing to the Work of God

"Listen and I will tell you what God has done for me." Psalm 66:16

Every year we can tell stories of how God has been active in our lives. In fact, we must tell stories – as a testimony and encouragement to others, and to keep us from forgetfulness.

Here are some common areas where God may have been active in your life recently, changing the situation or helping you to endure and grow through it: Identify the situation, how God was active, and who might be encouraged by your story!

What was the situation?	How was God active?	Who to encourage?
Challenges – health, finances, work, marriage, children, housing, other
Internal issues – anger, anxiety, shame, insecurity, depression, resentment, other
Answered prayers
